

Lifesavers around the Globe

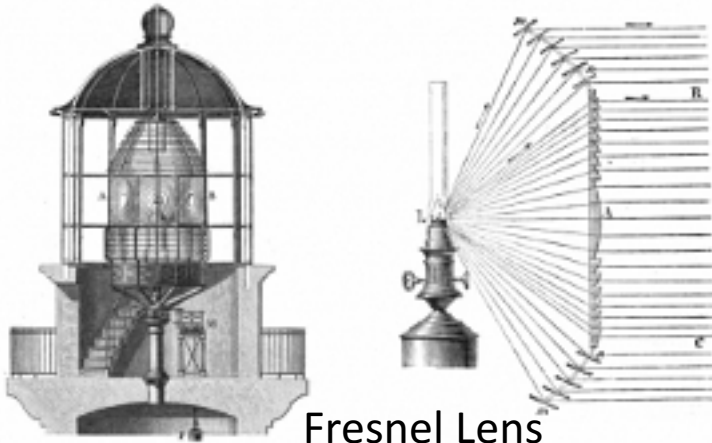

Other "Must Tells" Include:

- SS Pendleton
- LSS Station Pea Island
- LT Frank Erickson, 1st Helo Rescue
- SS Prinsendam
- "Perfect Storm"
- Sumner Kimball
- LSS Monomy Wadena Rescue
- Inland river floods
- SOLAS

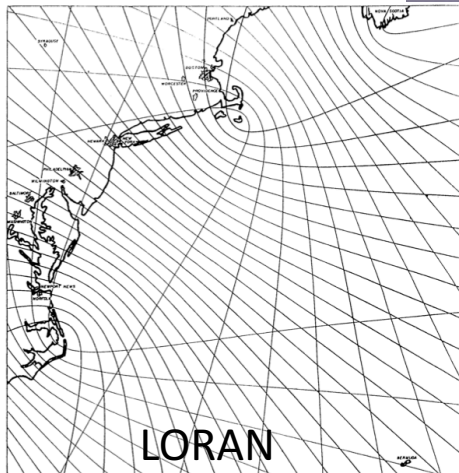

See Posters for full list

Leading Innovation in Technology

Fresnel Lens

Icebreaking around the globe

LORAN

COSTON'S MARINE SIGNALS
Percussion or Friction

The only signal recognized by the British Board of Trade in their report, and is used exclusively by the United States Government.

Distress Outfits for lifeboats in compliance with the rules and regulations of the Board of Steamboat Inspectors: friction or percussion.

Fog, Pilot and Distress Signals, all different steamship and yacht club distinguishing signals, friction or percussion, also regulation ship rockets and staves.

WATER LIGHTS
For Life Buoy, Embarkation or Deck Flares.
Distinguishing colors arranged and registered.
Send for our pamphlet entitled "Communication at Night on the Road at Sea."
Highest award, Gold Medal and Diploma, Jamestown Exposition, 1907.
Originators and largest manufacturers of marine night signals in the world.

COSTON SIGNAL CO., Inc.
7 Water St. New York
Entrance on Moore St. Telephone 3454 Broad

Deliveries made by Steam Lighters Day or Night

Other "Must Tells" Include:

- First ship-to-shore radio
- Elmer Stone Pilots NC-4 Across the Atlantic
- Ship Design
- Lyle Line Throwing Gun
- AMVER
- J. Lake Parkinson LSS Stations
- Lightship Design

See Posters for full list