“The Coast Guard and 9/11 ... 25 Years Later”

9 September from 9:00 to 11:00 a.m. at The Army-Navy Club, 901 17th St NW, Washington, DC 20006

The program will reflect on the Coast Guard’s role in the aftermath of the September 11 attacks and the lasting impact of that day on the Service, its missions, and the nation. The gathering offers an opportunity to mark the 25th anniversary of 9/11 with historical perspective, professional reflection, and public remembrance. Admiral Thad Allen, 23rd Commandant of the United States Coast Guard, and Master Chief Skip Bowen, 10th Master Chief Petty Officer of the Coast Guard, will take part in the event. Light refreshments will be served.

The event is free, but advance RSVP is required. Please RSVP by close of business 4 September 2026, at History@uscg.mil.

The Army-Navy Club is a private club in Washington, DC, known for hosting distinguished gatherings and events in an atmosphere of traditional courtesy and dress. Attire at The Army-Navy Club is business appropriate. Men must wear a coat and tie, women should wear comparable business attire. Military members may wear the uniform of the day or service dress.

Courtesy of the Foundation for Coast Guard History and the Coast Guard Historian’s Office

THIS POSTER IS FOR THE GENERAL AWARENESS AND INTEREST OF ALL HANDS.

ANNOUNCEMENTS CONTAINED HEREIN OF ANY NON-FEDERAL ENTITY OR ACTIVITY ARE NOT ENDORSED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY OR THE UNITED STATES COAST GUARD.